Prof. Michael A. McRobbie
President
Indiana University

December 12th, 2019

Dear President McRobbie,

On behalf of Tsinghua University, I extend my sincerest congratulations to Indiana University for its permanence as a foremost public institution - expanding the frontiers of knowledge and creativity - for an exceptional two hundred years.

Throughout Indiana University's history, its strong leaders and pioneering thinkers have improved lives in the United States and around the world. This is both a testament to the vision of Indiana University's founding members and a complement to its governance, past and present.

Tsinghua University and Indiana University enjoy a rich collaborative relationship characterized by extensive cross-faculty engagement and long-standing support of academic activities. Through our recent collaborative endeavors, Tsinghua and Indiana University have identified the need for advancing research and knowledge in emerging areas that are revolutionizing the world and that are critical to address global challenges.

I wish Indiana University continued success in its 201st year and beyond.

Yours sincerely,

QIU Yong
President
